

Rain or Shine! Sunday July 4, 2010, Noon to 4:30 pm
Bull Run Regional Park, Centreville, VA

National Conservative Fourth of July Soirée
1101 North Highland Street
Arlington, VA 22201-2854

- Free barbeque
- Notable speakers
- A lively patriotic band
- A petting zoo
- Field games
- And much more

Grand Patrons

60 Plus Association
Americans for Limited Government
Campaign for Liberty
The Leadership Institute
Let Freedom Ring
Morgan, Meredith & Associates, Inc.
National Right to Work Committee

Patrons

Americans for Prosperity Foundation
Stephen Clouse & Associates
Youth for Western Civilization

Co-Sponsors

America's Future Foundation
Gun Owners of America
Fairfax Christian School
The Heritage Foundation
National Rifle Association-Institute for Legislative Action
TriMark Corporation
Young America's Foundation

The Soirée has many sponsoring organizations. This non-partisan event does not support, endorse, or oppose any candidate or proposed legislation.

You Are Invited

The National Conservative Fourth of July Soirée is a FREE event for all guests and includes free food, a lively patriotic band, a petting zoo, field games, and much more. The first 400 guests to arrive will receive a complimentary conservative book courtesy of the event sponsors.

This year's keynote speaker is Jenny Beth Martin, co-founder and national coordinator of the Tea Party Patriots, and one of Time Magazine's 100 Most Influential People of 2009.

Everyone enjoys the all-you-can-eat barbeque, snow cones, and soft drinks, as well as fellowship with like-minded conservatives from all parts of the United States.

Bring your favorite side dish to share. Invite your family and friends. Join the fun — plan to attend today!

Directions to Bull Run Regional Park

Take I-66 to Exit 52 (Route 29) in Centreville, VA. Drive 2 miles South on Route 29. Turn left onto Bull Run Post Office Road and follow the signs to the park.

Park entrance is free to cars who display this invitation in their windshield.

For more information, call 1-800-827-LEAD