Student Activist Workshop – CPAC

Thursday, February 18 2010, 12:30pm – 1:30pm

Your First Amendment rights don't stop when you step foot on a college campus. College campuses across the country have used unconstitutional policies like "free speech zones" to limit conservative and libertarian students' speech on campus. But you don't have to be silenced. Come to the Leadership Institute's CampusReform.org Student Activist Workshop, co-sponsored by the Alliance Defense Fund to learn from experienced attorneys and student activists how to battle restrictive speech codes on your college campus. You can use this training to defend your rights and freedom of speech.
