Wearers of Adam Smith ties are “a community of activists who have one thing in common — a zest for a good intellectual fight and unbounded faith in economic growth.”

- as described by the National Journal

“The most popular neckpiece around the Reagan White House is one bearing tiny cameo profiles of Adam Smith, the 18th century Scot whose An Inquiry Into the Nature and Causes of the Wealth of Nations limned the classic argument for getting government off the back of business.”
