Learn to Win in Your Country

The Leadership Institute’s International Division works with center-right partner organizations around the world to conduct high quality training events for leaders, future leaders, and activists in host countries. There is no fee for Leadership Institute International Training. The local partner organization is responsible for providing the facility, generating participation, and reimbursing direct costs of travel and accommodations for the program faculty.

1. Choose Your Scope.
   Working with local partners, Leadership Institute conducts training at events of all sizes—from large conferences to intensive workshops.
   - Workshops. Three-hour programs on specialized topics that can be held as stand-alone events or integrated into existing conferences.
   - Full-day programs. Comprehensive programs covering several topics with multiple presenters can range from one day to multiple days.

2. Choose Your Topic.
   LI works with the partner organization to plan the program’s agenda, including topics, format, and faculty. Below is a partial listing of the topics our programs can offer:
   - Leadership
   - Finance and fundraising
   - Political movements and parties
   - Candidates and campaigns
   - Communications

3. Learn to Win.
   LI teaches conservatives of all ages how to succeed in politics, government, and the media.
   - World Class Faculty
     The Leadership Institute’s faculty are experts in their respective fields bringing their local, national, and international expertise to conservatives through our programs and events with center-right partners.

“The Leadership Institute’s international programs provide the best tools to become a real leader.”
